INCOMING AND RETIRING PRESIDENTS OF ORGANIZATION OF TALENTED MUSICIANS

MRS. ROBERT L. BROWN

MRS. JAMES L. M'REE

Mrs. Robert L. Brown, a popular leader in club and social circles whose beautiful voice has won many laurels for the Renaissance Music circle, of which she has been a prominent member for some time, was unanimously elected president of that organization at a meeting held with Mrs. Ben Parker at the Peabody hotel, Wednesday morning at 10:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Brown is an ardent musician who works untiringly for the art which she loves, that others, who do not possess musical talent but have the same great love for it, may hear the songs that are dear to them, and may know the whippers of happiness that are sometimes carried upon the wings of song, when most needed.

Mrs. James L. McKee, the retiring president of the Renaissance Music circle, has done great things for that organization during her term as head of it. She is one of the most popular members in local club and music circles and her charming and gracious personality, and the beauty and sweetness of her voice, has won countless admirers for the Renaissance, as well as for its president. She was unanimously elected vice-president of the organization at the meeting Wednesday.

Mrs. Richmond McKinney, another well-known musician was made secretary and Mrs. W. W. Deupree, treasurer. Mrs. J. B. McCoy, chairman of the circle, and accompanist for the circle, and from the sale of postcards and French sketches in the downtown section alone.

Red Side Entertainment.

The red side of the woman's mission society of the Epworth M. E. church will give an entertainment at the church on Thursday evening to enroll all new members of both the red and white sides in the membership campaign.

Y. W. C. Gym. Class.

The following classes have been made in the gymnasium calendar of the Young Women's club. On account of closing the vocational gymnasium the use of its gymnasium, and the Ben Hur hall has been secured for basketball practice. The calendar follows: Gymnasium class, Tuesday and Thursday nights at 7:30, Rex club. Basketball—Wednesday and Friday nights at 7 o'clock, Ben Hur hall.

"Praise and Petitions."

The woman's auxiliary of the Idlewild Presbyterian church held the springtime program meeting Monday afternoon with Mrs. George Taylor, 115 South McLemore boulevard.

A responsive program of "Praise and Petitions" for foreign missions was led by the president, Mrs. E. E. Dickinson, and followed by a delightful musical program; Misses Madeline Cresson, Edith Douglass, Mary Wilkinson, and Elizabeth Taylor contributing.

Mrs. Buchanan gave some of her unusually good readings which was followed by the serving of delicious refreshments.

"Pageant of Types."

The Foster circle, King's daughters, will present a benefit drama and a "Pageant of Types" Friday evening at 8:15 o'clock, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. White, 1344 Harbor avenue. The program includes many delightful features.
